PREFACE

Bachelor of Vocational (Honours) in Tourism and Hospitality Management

The Bachelor of Vocational (B. Voc) (Honours) in Tourism and Hospitality Management program is designed to equip students with practical skills and theoretical knowledge essential for thriving in one of the fastest-growing sectors of the global economy. In a world that is becoming increasingly interconnected, tourism and hospitality are not just industries—they are avenues of cultural exchange, economic development, and international cooperation.

This program blends academic learning with hands-on training to provide students with a comprehensive understanding of travel operations, hotel management, customer service, event planning, tourism marketing, and sustainable tourism practices. Emphasis is laid on employability, industry exposure, and skill development in alignment with the National Skill Qualification Framework (NSQF), ensuring that students are workplace-ready upon graduation. With the rapid expansion of the tourism industry, both in India and globally, this program offers a wide range of job opportunities for graduates. Students can explore careers in

1. Travel and tour operations
2. Airlines and airport services
3. Event planning and management
4. Front office and guest relations
5. Food and beverage services
6. Entrepreneurship in travel start-ups or homestays

Summary	As an integral component of the B.Voc. Tourism and Hospitality Management Honors degree programme, students are required to complete a structured apprenticeship or work-integrated learning programme in collaboration with relevant industries, organizations, or institutions. This component, spanning a duration of 280 days, carries 28 academic credits and is compulsory in the student's designated skill domain. This apprenticeship-based course is designed to provide hands-on experience in the core operational areas of the hospitality and tourism industry through a long-term internship in a recognized hotel or travel agency. Over a period of 280 days, students will acquire practical skills in front office operations, housekeeping, food and beverage service, travel planning, customer service, reservations systems, and tour management. The program aims to bridge the gap between theoretical knowledge and industry practices, fostering professional competencies, workplace ethics, and real-time problem-solving abilities.

CourseName	Research internship; Research in Tourism industry or Destination Research
TypeofCourse	RIN
CourseCode	MG7RINTHM400
Summary	This research internship is an integral component of the B.Voc. Tourism and Hospitality Management Honors programme, designed to foster research aptitude and critical inquiry in students. Over a period of 200 days, students will engage in independent or guided research focusing on the tourism industry, destination analysis, and on tourism development issues. The internship includes identifying a research problem, designing a study, collecting and analyzing data, and preparing a comprehensive research report. By participating in field-based or institutional research, students will explore topics such as visitor behavior, destination competitiveness, tourism marketing, sustainability, or community impacts. The program aims to promote evidence-based thinking, academic discipline, and skills in analytical writing and reporting—preparing students for higher studies, consultancy, or policy-level roles in tourism.
